OUR FAMILY CARING FOR YOUR FAMILY

Hetherington Funerals: it's our family funeral home. We have a passion for educating and assisting families with preplanning and funeral needs. Passion for serving with care and attention to detail. But most of all, passion for getting the funeral right!

Part of our drive is education. It has become our mission to become the first port of call for families needing information.

Our family at Hetherington Funerals will step in and reduce the stress further for the families by offering pre-need and at-need advice. Together we can make a massive difference.

We are a proud, independent, Christian family-owned funeral home with three generations of family working together to service other WA families. Keith Wieske and son-in-law Eric Dekker, along with Eric's children Chelsea, Ashton and Tamsyn, have a strong focus on family, and they are determined to make sure that every family is cared for like their own.
